Dedication

To Dr. Henderson Irwin, Chairman of Eureka School Board for 36 years, we the Seniors of 1952, dedicate the third edition of Eu-Re-Hi-Ke Daze.

We appreciate Dr. Irwin for the great interest and loyalty that he has shown our school. "He has been a stranger to none, and friend to all."

Class History

On that memorable day, September 9, just four years ago, a group of green, frightened freshmen entered Room 34 at Eureka High School. We were glad that we didn't have to be initiated into high school, but we were still filled with awe. We elected our class officers, with the help of Mrs. Charles Winborn, our home-room teacher. They were: Barbara Bartlett, president; Ann Sauls, vice-president; Shirley Murray, secretary; and Jimmy Winders, treasurer.

As Freshmen, we were elated to have three girls and one boy on the basketball teams.

During the year, we entertained the Senior class with a chicken fry at Mrs. Winborn's home. Four of our class-members accompanied the Seniors to Washington on a sight-seeing trip.

Our Sophomore year wasn't too eventful. We were still trying to learn. Again, we elected our class officers. They were: Shirley Murray, president; Ann Sauls, vice-president; Wilhelmina Chase, secretary; and Peggy Bradshaw, treasurer. Mrs. Bessie B. Bradshaw was our home-room teacher. During the year, we took the Seniors to White Lake. Our number on the basketball teams also increased. We had four girls and five boys. We were very proud of these boys and girls.

We entered our Junior year at Eureka High with an elated spirit. Mary Daily Morris joined us at the beginning of the year. Our sponsor this time was Miss Janice Sasser. We presented our play and gave the Junior-Senior Banquet under her leadership.

About the first thing we did was to elect class officers in our Junior year. They were: Charles Davis, president; Ann Sauls, vice-president; Wilhelmina Chase, secretary; and Billy Langston, treasurer.

Next came the very important business of presenting our Junior play, "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works." It was very successful. We really enjoyed practicing for this play. Miss Sasser directed us.

Next, as Juniors, we were giving the Junior-Senior Banquet. We had waited so long for this impressive event. We had our banquet in the gymnasium, the first class banquet to be presented there. We decorated it, and were very pleased with the results. This was a real highlight in our lives.

After our summer vacation had quickly passed, we were happy to return to school and be greeted once-more by our cheerful classmates. All were happy because we were Seniors.

First, as Seniors, we elected our class officers. They were: Mary Daily Morris, president; Ann Sauls, vice-president; Shirley Murray, secretary; and Charles Davis, treasurer. Mrs. Sam Martin was our Senior sponsor.

Now we all began thinking about our Senior play. After much debating, we decided to present "Aunt Tillie Goes to Town." It was very successful. Mrs. Martin and Mr. Robinson directed it.

Next came the task of publishing the third edition of the Eu-Re-Hi-Ke-Daze. It has proved a task, indeed. Even though it was work, we are glad we had the privilege to publish it. It was something that we knew we had made.

Now we want to express our appreciation to Mr. Talton W. Jones, our principal and Economics teacher; to Mrs. Sam Martin, our Senior sponsor, French, and English teacher; Miss Janice Sasser, Home Economics teacher; Mr. Orville Robinson, Commercial teacher; and Mr. W. J. Peterson, Algebra, Chemistry teacher and basketball coach. As we go forward into a new life, we will always appreciate their understanding and patience throughout our happiest years.

Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the famed class of '52, realizing that the remainder of our days in E. H. S. are few, and being of sound body and comparatively sound mind, do hereby bequeath to the Juniors our worldly possessions, our charming ways and our charming personalities. As a class we wish to bequeath the following:

First: Our desks, classrooms, and immovable fixtures we leave to the school; all movable fixtures probably to disappear with us when we depart this seat of learning.

Second: To our teachers, we leave our friends and relatives in succeeding classes, with a heartfelt prayer for their mutual happiness.

As individuals, we would like to leave our following qualities to our schoolmates:

I, Douglas Murray, do will and bequeath my way with the women to G. C. Morris, to be passed on if not needed.

I, Billy Langston, do will and bequeath my promise of absolute loyalty to Sally Parrish in the hope that she will return the same.

I, Betty Bradshaw, do will and bequeath that intangible something called "technique" to Annie Rose Smith.

I, Wilhelmina Chase, do will and bequeath my luck in love to Faye Sauls.

I, Shirley Murray, do will and bequeath my never-fail flirting technique to Joyce Lancaster in the hope that she will make good use of it.

I, Ann Sauls, do will and bequeath my ability to play basketball to Kay Taylor.

I, Mary Daily Morris, do will and bequeath my certain somethin' to Ruth Cooke.

We, Bonnie Howell, Muriel Williford, and Velva Pender do will and bequeath our quiet ways to Betty Lois Jordon, Hilda Hollingsworth, and Dot Frazier.

I, Jimmy Winders, do will and bequeath my enormous and substantial feet to the '53 basketball team, believing it to be sadly in need of a firm foundation.

I, Ruth Hamm, do will and bequeath my business intelligence to Floyd Ray Sauls.

I, Barbara Bartlett, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with people to Edith Sauls.

I, Marie Edmundson, do will and bequeath my innocent looks and ways to Inez West.

I, Charles Davis, do will and bequeath my place on the basketball team to Leon Mooring.

I, Billy Bartlett, do will and bequeath my wolfish ways to Bobby Herring.

I, Louise Yelverton, do will and bequeath that quality called "glamour" to Colleen Kearney.

I, Melvin Sauls, do will and bequeath my spot on the substitutes' bench to Carl Richard Becton, thinking that he'll need it since he's worn his out.

I, Earl Lancaster, do will and bequeath my neatness to Johnny Edmundson.

I, George Yelverton, do will and bequeath my "sweet looks" to Wayne Harrison.

I, Charles Boyette, do will and bequeath my interesting personality to Billy Sauls.

I, Alma Sauls, do will and bequeath my habit of giggling in class to Patricia Howell.

I, Marie Barnette, do will and bequeath my cute ways with the boys to Norma Ann Smith.

I, Gladys Darden, do will and bequeath my dependability to Selby Grant.

I, Harlowe Pender, do will and bequeath my glamorous hair-do to Jerry Cockrell.

I, Christine Lewis, do will and bequeath my charming manners to Frances Kearney.

In this manner, we dispose of our possessions, and do declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

Signed: Shirley Murray

Class Poem

We, the Seniors of '52,
Graduate with a smile to you;
For it was you who gave us the courage to face those problems that were not trimmed with lace.
It was you helped us most;
You, who struggled with us to this very post.
We realize that we face a future that can't always be bright; but thank you so much for holding high for us our light.
May we take it now and carry it with us; for we know now that leave you we must.
So farewell to you now, farewell to you all;
And thanks for so faithfully answering our every call.

by Barbara R. Bartlett

Class Song

There's a gleam in our eye
Guess you're wondering why,
But you really should know why it's there.
With such power in our smile,
Since we've come the last mile
With our happiness with you to share.
Though our days have been long,
Our hopes are still strong
For a future we hope will be bright.
We'll be happy all the while and at all times smile,
And carry the bright shining light.

Tonight our eyes are smiling,
Our life has just begun.
You can hear the Seniors laughter
As they bring back songs they've sung.
When Seniors hearts are happy,
All the world seems bright and gay,
And now classmates eyes are smiling
So to you farewell we'll say.

School Song

Here's to our colors white and blue
Dear old Eureka how we love you,
And to prove our faith in thee
We'll go onward to victory.
Rah! Rah! Rah!

We love our school, she stands for right
We'll pull for her with all our might.
We're proud of her, she's our friend
We'll love her until the end.
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Here's to our colors white and blue
Dear old Eureka how we love you,
And to prove our faith in thee
We'll go onward to victory.

Humor Page

Earl L.: "Barbara, what are you doing on the ground?"

Barbara B.: "I tried walking on the sidewalk with Mr. Robinson, and this is what happened."

Ann S.: "George, why aren't you insured this year?"

George Y.: "Well, Pa thought it over and decided he'd rather take a chance on losing me than to be sure of losing seventy-five cents."

Mrs. Jones: "What? My husband kissing that teacher! I am surprised."

Mr. Jones: "No, my dear, I am surprised. You are astonished."

Mrs. Martin: "Do you think your son will forget what he will learn in college?"

Mr. Davis: "I hope so. He can't make a living courting."

Mr. Robinson: "So you admit that this unfortunate freshman was carried to the fishpond and drenched. What part did you take in this disgraceful affair?"

Melvin S.: "The right leg, sir."

Christine L.: "Here's an ash tray."

Douglas M.: "Thanks, but the floor isn't full yet."

Harlow P.: "Mary Daily, I understand that it was you who broke the windowpane."

Mary D. M.: "Yes, Harlow, I am the one who broke it."

Harlow P.: "But why?"

Mary D. M.: "I threw a brick at Billy Bartlett and he ducked."

Charles B.: "What did you think of that ventriloquist last night?"

Billie B.: "Oh, I didn't think he was so hot, but that little fellow on his knees was awfully funny."

Ruth H.: "I wonder if it's five o'clock yet?"

Betty B.: "Why?"

Ruth H.: "Because I'm supposed to be home at five, and I'm not there yet."

Muriel W.: "Gladys, have you lived in Wayne County all your life?"

Gladys D.: "Not yet."

Velva P.: "Why do they call our language the mother tongue?"

Jimmy W.: "Because the father so seldom gets a chance to use it."

Mr. Peterson: "What ancient ruler played the fiddle while Rome was burning?"

Louise Y.: "Was it Hector?"

Mr. Peterson: "No, not Hector."

Louise Y.: "Then it was Duke."

Mr. Peterson: "Duke? What do you mean?"

Louise Y.: "Well, then, it must have been Nero. I knew it was somebody with a dog's name."

Judge: "Speeding, eh? How many times have you been before me?"

Billie L.: "Never, your Honor. I've tried to pass you on the road once or twice, but my car will only do fifty-five."

Mr. Tart: "Charles, what is steam?"

Charles D.: "Water that's crazy with heat."

Miss Sasser: "Shirley, define 'nose'."

Shirley M.: "A part of the body that shines, snubs, snoops, and sneezes."

Bonnie H.: "Well, since you ask, what is the difference between a sewing machine and a kiss?"

Alma S.: "One sews seams nice, and the other seems so nice."

Mrs. Edmundson: "Marie, what do you mean by feeding the baby yeast?"

Marie E.: "She swallowed my nickel, and I'm trying to raise the dough."

Wilhelmina C.: "You should eat your spinach, Marie. It will put color in your cheeks."

Marie B.: "Who wants green cheeks, anyway?"

*If upon your face appears one smile,
I'll consider my work worth while.*

Class Prophecy

Looking into the future of the Class of 1952, the magic curtain is parting, the fog is lifting, and now I can see the fate of my classmates—

It is 1958 and I can see Charles Davis, a doctor, curing a girl who has had hiccoughs for fifty-nine days. Bonnie Howell, his nurse, is assisting him.

Flash! Latest news is Miss Mary Daily Morris and Mr. Earl Lancaster are happily married and spending their honeymoon at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City.

Betty Bradshaw is directing a swimming class at White Lake and we hear that the new M.G.M. director, Melvin Sauls, has spotted her for a replacement of Muriel Williford.

Down at Carolina Beach, you'll find a cool little vacation spot operated by the former Shirley Murray and her better half, Jimmy Winders.

Barbara Bartlett is a typing teacher now. She is a graduate of Mr. Robinson's instruction.

Referee George Yelverton is ill from effects of pop bottles he met when calling the Eureka-Fremont basketball game.

In Stantonsburg, I see Mrs. Willie Mozingo, formerly Wilhelmina Chase, and her three-year-old twins, Tillie and Willie.

Billy Langston and Charles Boyette have been given credit for capturing more stills in Wayne County than all other deputies combined.

Captain Billy Bartlett is home on leave from Army Service.

Velva Pender and Gladys Darden have completed their course as air stewardesses with the South-Eastern Air Line.

A school teacher's life is not a holiday, say Ann Sauls, Christine Lewis, Louise Yelverton, and Marie Edmundson. Soon bells other than school bells for them!

Ruth Hamm is owner and operator of a chain of clothing stores patronized by Marie Barnette, Harlow Pender, and Alma Sauls, three of our better housewives.

Baseball Team

First row, left to right: Carl Richard Becton, Charles Davis, Bo Murray, W. J. Peterson, Coach.

Second row: Charles Taylor, William Darden, Leon Mooring, Billy Bartlett, Charles Boyette, Johnny Edmundson.

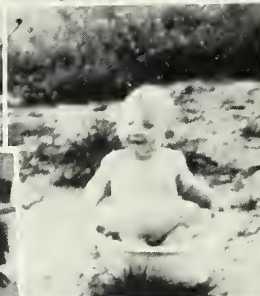

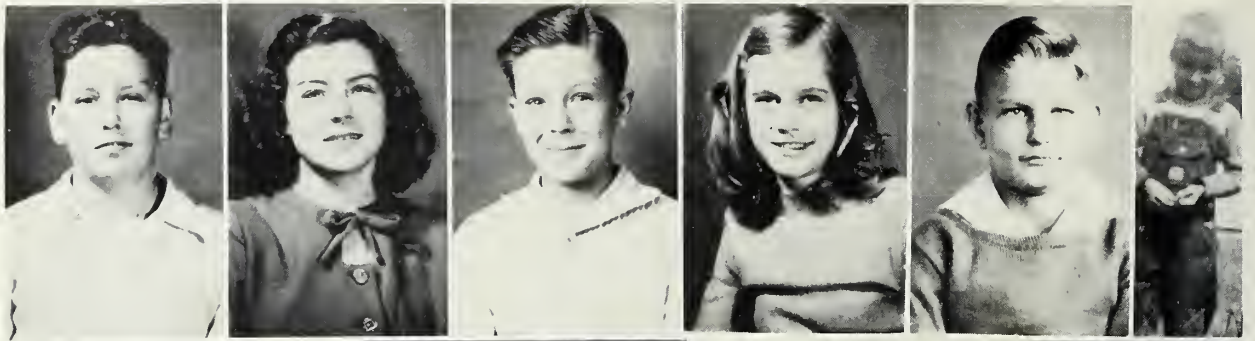

Our baseball team is looking forward to another highly successful season.

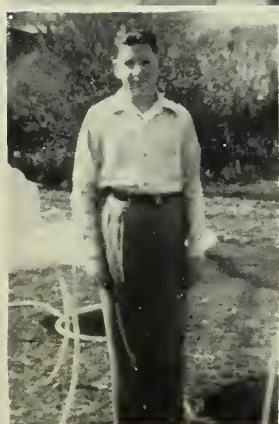

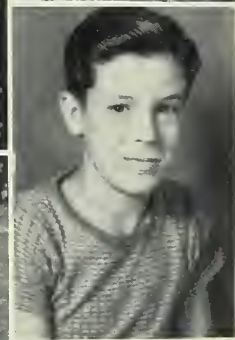

Last year in conference play our boys won 7 games and lost only 1 thus becoming Northern County Champions. In the playoff with Mount Olive, of the Southern Division, we won 2 of the 3 games to take the Wayne County Champions.

We have lost only two players from our last years' champion team; and have hopes of being county champs again.

SNAPSHOTS

you're the best friend a person
ever had. Especially me!
Love,
Bobby.

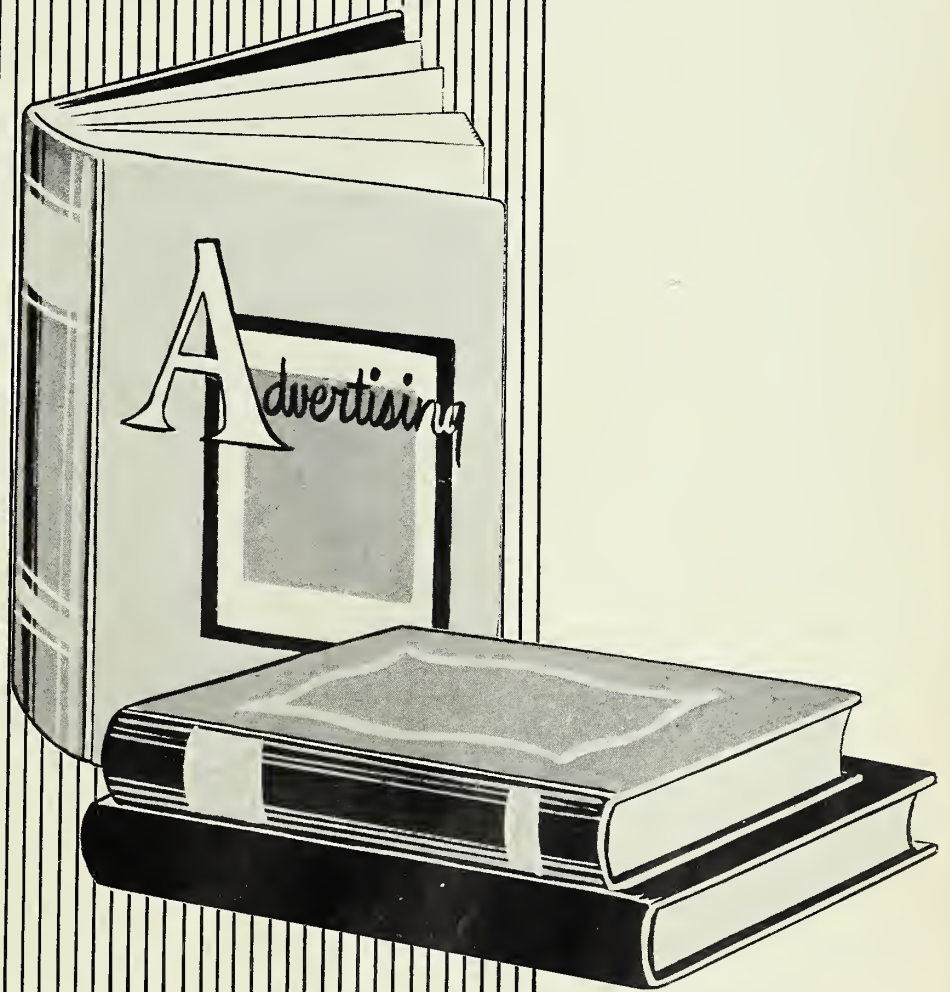

Leon,
I have enjoyed
going to school with you.
I wish you luck and happiness all through your life. You are a nice person; never change!
Love,
Ray

Leon, I wish you luck throughout your future. I have certainly enjoyed going to school with you all these years. You are really a nice friend
and partner!
Love
Sheldon!

Leon, I've enjoyed going to school and being in the same classes with you. I had fun while we
practiced for the play.
I'll never forget you.
Bobby

Leon,
I have enjoyed having you as a classmate. I think you are a nice
friend to have.
I wish you the best of luck in
the future.
Love,
Edith
